1. The ve-nus of all coun-try girls in our u-ni-ted land, My sweet-est lit-tle blossom whom of cu-pid I de-mand, She
 2. I had to leave my lit-tle girl and struggle all a-lone, I get so blue it seems to me I'll nev-er have a home, But is the dear-est treas-ure, to me she's good and true, For she's as pure as lil-ies cov-ered o'er with morn-ing dew, I when I get her let-ters, in them she'd al-ways say, Now try to be a good boy dear you are I hope and pray, Be try to be so good to her, She knows what's in my heart, I hate to think what I would do if we should ev-er part: So sure to save your mon-ey, You know I'll do the same, And don't for-get your girl loves you work hard and make a name: When in my sim-ple boy-ish way, to her I will ex-plain, As look-ing in her dear good face, I sing this sweet re-frain.

 one day she re-turned to me, this lit-tle one of mine, She sang the words to me most dear, I think they are di-vine.
